

Learning Community
Scaling Up & Sustainability
Monday January 23, 2017

Puget Sound Educational Service District Snoqualmie Room Agenda

Facilitators: Maureen Pettitt and Hilary Loeb

Timeframe	Activities	Objectives
11:30 AM – 12:00 PM	Lunch and networking	Enjoy good food and conversations with colleagues
12:00 –12:15	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Welcome/Introductions • Learning Community Goals • Today's Agenda
12:15 – 12:30	Presentation: Framework for Scaling Up Completion Coaching at Your Institution. Maureen Pettitt, Project Finish Line Learning Community Facilitator	Participants will be introduced to MDC's More to Most framework for scaling up initiatives, including a modified framework to use at their campuses to help make the case for this work. A sustainability assessment will also be shared.
12:30 – 1:30	Presentation and Discussion: Scaling Up Completion Coaching: Walla Walla's Story. Kristi Wellington-Baker, Dean of Student Success, Walla Walla Community College	Participants are introduced to the evolution of Walla Walla's completion coaching, their approach to scaling up, and the essential design features.
1:30 – 2:30	Presentation and Discussion: Examining Program Return on Investment. Dr. Bob Hughes, Project Finish Line Evaluator	Participants are introduced to concept of ROI models and provide feedback about options for calculating ROI for completion coaching efforts across
2:30 – 2:45	Break: Participants will move to location of their session of interest. Mini-session descriptions and locations are provided on next page

Timeframe	Activities	Objectives
2:45 – 3:40	Skills development mini sessions descriptions and locations: Appreciative Inquiry Hilary Loeb, Puget Sound ESD Participants will learn about using Appreciative Inquiry as a tool for college-level conversations about sustainability and scaling up completion coaching efforts. Cayuse Room Communicating with the President’s Cabinet Erin Barzen, South Seattle College Participants will have an opportunity to view South Seattle’s presentation to cabinet members designed to communicate the highlights of their completion coaching work. Snoqualmie Room	Participants learn about tools and approaches for enabling sustainability and scaling up activities at their college during concurrent mini-sessions
3:40 – 3:50	Reconvene in main meeting room
3:50 – 4:20	“Take-aways” from Project Finish Line Learning Community convenings	Participants will highlight the most significant ideas they learned or applied as a result of their participation in the learning community convenings
4:20 – 4:30	Wrap-Up and Evaluation	